

Psalm 103 - Redemption

Brax Carvette, Youth Minister

Weekend of July 10-11, 2021

Sermon Summary

"Honestly, what's the point?" That's a hard sentence to hear from someone you care about. It's a hard sentence to say. Someone who says that sentence sounds like someone who is in despair— but at least they're honest about it! At least they're getting real about their despair! We can feel worn out as we go about life. At some point, we're going to have to get real with God and tell him that we don't see much of a point to keep following him. This week, we hear how King David (who wrote Psalm 103) reminded himself of the benefits of following God.

Discussion Questions

What have you done for fun so far this summer? Are you still looking forward to something in particular?

Do you have a favorite Psalm? Why do you think that particular Psalm is your favorite?

READ Psalm 103

What are 3 observations that you see in this passage?

What does this passage say about the nature and character of God?

It's interesting that this Psalm opens and closes with a particular posture -- praise. Did you notice it? What is significant about this?

Take a moment to check-in with one another. What is going on in your life that is worthy of praise?

How would your prayer life change if you opened it and closed it with praise?

Memory Passage

John 10:27 – “My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

Verses We Read Together in Worship

John 10:27 – “My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.”

Songs We Sang Together in Worship

Your Love Awakens

Reckless Love

Death Was Arrested

Hope Has a Name

