Sermon Summary

Sometimes life is unfair and people are unreasonable. Sometimes circumstances are perplexing and people are evil. How does a man or woman of God navigate? Few of us will navigate murkier waters than Daniel but our circumstances are just as important for our moment as his were for his. Today he teaches us how to trust the God of Heaven in order to navigate our times well.

What is new of interesting about this passage?

As difficult as it may be, try to avoid speculating which kingdoms are represented by the statue's materials. There has been much speculation about that over the years. Rather, think about the bigger picture of this passage, that is the trust that Daniel has garnered. How was that trust earned?

In verses 17-18, we read Daniel taking is issue to his small group 😊. What was the action taken?

Maybe you aren't being called upon to interpret a king's dream, but is there a big challenge that you are facing that seems insurmountable?

3. Praise God when He answers
4. Read Daniel 3 this week

How can the group help you in these steps and help you with what you are facing?

Memory Passage

Ephesians 1:20-23 – “20 he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, 21 far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. 22 And God placed all things under his feet and appointed him to be head over everything for the church, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills everything in every way.”
