

God's Sovereignty in the Days to Come

Daniel 12

Mike Stella

Weekend of March 20-21, 2021

Sermon Summary

Daniel 12 (Revelation 21; John 5:19-30)

There is an end to all this you know. But not really and end as much as a new beginning. This world is moving under the sovereign hand of God. A day of judgement is coming to which Jesus pointed and John had visions. This week Daniel calls us to lift our eye and hearts, to fall into step with our sovereign God.

Discussion Questions

What is your favorite thing about this time of year? (not just "It's getting warmer" 😊)

In the sermon, Mike asked: What do you picture when you think of God?

- Warrior
- Grandparent
- Judge
- Mysterious

So... What do you picture when you think of God? One of these 4 things? Something else?

How has this view of God changed over time? Does your view of Him change in certain circumstances?

READ Daniel 12

What point do you think God was trying to get across to Daniel?

Discuss verse 8 and 9. How do you think we can apply this to our own lives today?

Reflecting back on this entire series through the Book of Daniel, what is your biggest takeaway?

What needs to change in order for you to follow Jesus more closely?

How can the group pray for you and keep you accountable in this?

Memory Passage

2 Corinthians 6:2 – “For he says, “In the time of my favor I heard you, and in the day of salvation I helped you.” I tell you, now is the time of God’s favor, now is the day of salvation.”

Verses We Read Together in Worship

1 Peter 1:3-9

Songs We Sang Together in Worship

Lion and the Lamb

Hope Has a Name

Morning by Morning

Battle Belongs

