

Praying in a Crazy World

2 Thessalonians 3:1-5

Weekend of May 23-24, 2020

NorthRidge Value of the Week

Prayer - We value prayer, as essential for bringing about spiritual change.

Sermon Summary

2 Thessalonians 3:1-5

In February 2020, we had an idea of how to do things. By March, we had no idea what we were doing. What do we do differently? What can we do the same? As people who are living lives of spiritual change, we can thank God that the most important things don't change even if our circumstances change. And one of the most important things in a spiritually changed life is prayer. This week, we see how to pray in a crazy world.

Discussion Questions

What is your favorite season and why?

In your own words, how do you describe prayer?

READ 2 Thessalonians 3:1-5

When you pray about the pain and problems of your life, do you find yourself complaining to God or trying to keep your problems to yourself?

How do you think that praying like a child and asking for what you want would change your prayer life?

Who is doing the work of spreading the gospel (whether they're one of our mission partners or someone you know) that you can start praying for?

In what ways have you prayed that the Gospel would spread in your own life?

How can the group pray for you?

Sermon Response Question

Memory Passage

2 Thessalonians 3:1 – “As for other matters, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the message of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored, just as it was with you.”
