

Psalm 73 – Perspective

Andy Schultz, Worship Pastor
Weekend of July 31-Aug 1, 2021

Sermon Summary

Have you ever been bothered by something that caused you to wrestle with your faith in God only to realize that there was another way of seeing or thinking about things? I'm sure we all have. After all, we are not God and cannot see or know everything. However, through regular conversations with God, we can begin to see things from another perspective. His.

Discussion Questions

Have you been watching the Olympics? If so, what is your favorite event?

Do you think that there is an Olympic event that, given the opportunity, you could have done well in?

What is something about yourself or your life, that you tend to compare to others often?

READ Psalm 73

How can you relate to Asaph in the first part of this Psalm?

As you continue reading through this Psalm, what are some of the areas that you find relatable and some that you don't?

What would it look like for you to worship God every day?

How can the group pray for you as you seek to give the Lord more of your worship?

Memory Passage

Psalm 73:25-26 -

25 Whom have I in heaven but you?
And earth has nothing I desire besides you.

26 My flesh and my heart may fail,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

Verses We Read Together in Worship

2 Corinthians 3:16-18

Songs We Sang Together in Worship

Open Up the Heavens

No Other Name

One True God

Praise Him