

When We Disregard God

Daniel 5

Ben McEachern

Weekend of January 30-31, 2021

NorthRidge Value of the Week

Relationships - We value working together in unity as a team, with honest, healthy and loving relationships.

Sermon Summary

Sacrilege, not a word we concern ourselves with much anymore. Even if you knew what it meant, would you do more than yawn? "God is love" but he is no push over. He will not tolerate disrespect forever. God moves in history and we are either in step or out. This week we are challenged to take seriously the things of God.

Discussion Questions

What is one exciting thing that you have planned for the coming week?

READ Daniel 5

What is something new that pops out to you in this passage?

What would you say is the overall theme of the chapter? Are there any "big picture" points that you take away from it?

In verses 25-28, we read what was written on the wall and the meaning of those words:

Mene: God numbers my days

Tekel: Weighs my actions

Peres: God judges my life

Are there any of these three things that you have been becoming more aware of? Any that you need to take more seriously?

How can we:

1. Learn to rely on the Holy Spirit for our power?

2. Respond to events with godly perspective?
3. Pay attention to what He has done with others in the past?
4. Join our invitation to become God's teammate and join in on what He is doing?

Close in prayer.

Memory Passage

Psalm 145:1-2 – “I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and ever.
Every day I will praise you
and extol your name for ever and ever.”
